PRO SE PLAINTIFF'S CURATIVE REQUEST TO DISREGARD HANDWRITTEN NOTICE
DATED 7/26/02

DEPUTY CLERK

PLAINTIFF-John Charles Kenney, acting pro se in the above captioned civil action hereby presents a curative request to disregard a previous "Handwritten Notice," dated 7/26/02. The "Notice" of 7/26/02 was based upon a mistake regarding a claim of retaliation for redress. However, because the "Notice" was based upon a mistake, or misunderstanding. That at this time, I wish for the Court to disregard the 7/26/02 "Notice" ONLY. (See enclosures) (enclosures are actual copies of the previous "Notice," dated 7/26/02). Kenney praises this Court's cooperation regarding the above matter.

Note: defendants were not forwarded copies of this "Notice." Therefore, Kenney wishes for this Honorable Court to disregard the above "Notice" underseal. Further, Kenney did not forward any copies to the defendants, nor a copy of the instant curative request for disregarding the "Notice."

Respectfully submitted and requested,

KENNEY #05238-041/ACTING PRO SE

JOHN CHARLES KENNEY,
Plaintiff,

Case No. 1:00-CV-00-2143

v.

JAKE MENDEZ, Warden, et al.,
Defendants. Magistrate Blewitt

Plaintiff's Emergency Notice Of Retaliation 7/26/02

Plaintiff, John Charles Kenney, pr se hereby gives "emergency" notice to the Court that he is being "RETALIATED" upon by the Defendants. Defendants are attempting to place Kenney in segregation and in restraints for redress. Therefore, Kenney is unable to respond or participate in this case, until defendant stop retaliating against him. Kenney moves for an "emergency" stay.
